nately unnoticed. On she sped, past the long, long line of fences, and down into the very heart of the town. He cheeks were crimson, her breath carge in gasps, she almost stumbled with fatigue, but at last she reached the mar-an old blind woman was selling laces.

companionship from the old blind creahands to arrange her posies in front of white frock, with its short, puffed sleeves; her eyes ablaze, her amber ringlets blown about by the morning breeze, framed, as it were, by a border of yellow daisies and golden-hearted

To-Day and To-Morrow. If there comes some joy to me,

- Would you have me stay, With that joy to sweeten life "Yes, Heart, stay te-day." Well, then, if I have a dream Of some coming sorrow,
- Shall I wait to feel its fear? "That will do to-morrow.
- If unto some loving heart I've a debt to pay? "Ah! that is a might debt;
- Pay it, Heart, to-day." If I'm forced from bitter wrongs Cruel words to borrow? "Then, dear Heart, there is no haste;
- " Duty, Kindness and Success Lose by slow delay; Duty bath a double right When it claims to-day;
- Success will not stay-
- Unto them comes no to-morrov If they lose to-day.
- But for useless Sorrow,
- Better you should wait a day Keep them for to-morrow. And as every day's to-day, You may patience Lorrow, pressibly delightful after the heat of purse. the day, began to blow.

The Miller's Granddaughter.

Since early dawn Lizzie Dupont had been toiling at her needle, but now she threw down her work, and leaving the deal," and she shook her curly head old mill stood on the rude plank that with a grave, important air, "for Lizcrossed the mill-race, and looked eager- zie must have the money by Saturday, ly over the fields.

got ready by Saturday has made me which she had just selected for him out forget her. I ought to have listened of her store. to grandpa. I am sure something has happened to her. She never was away looking curiously at her. The color so long before. I shall never forgive went and came on his face, his lips myself. What-what," she cried, sud- trembled, and he showed other signs of denly clasping her hands, "if she emotion.

should be drowned?" Lizzie Dapont had not always been a dear, what is your name?" been, and that not so long ago, the as if for some half-remembered, halfpetted daughter of a merchant prince fancied likeness. in New York. But her father had failed and died soon after of a broken heart, and Lizzie would have starved written; "I am old and poor, but we cried, "Dossy! my little pet Dossy, will share our crusts together. If you don't you know who I am?" ather's rich relations, had found refuge had become acquainted with a young Englishman, the son of a titled family, and had plighted her troth to him. Just before her father's failure Ross knee many and many a time." Devereaux had sailed for England, inclaim his bride. But from that day to and sprang into his arms. this Lizzie had never heard a word

At first she thought her letters had been miscarried, and in the faith and trust of her young heart had continued writing. But, at last, and after discovering the heartlessness of her father's "No," answered Dossy, "we live at relatives, she began to believe that even "I am you know." Ross might be selfish also. poor now, and he deserts me," she said.
"God help me! But it is, I sappose, the way of the world."

Lately a new trouble had come upon her feet. her Her grandfather had been failing all winter, so that a man had to be hired mortgage on the mill, for the grandman, and now the interest had fallen ened to turn out the little family, if his it was impossible-not yetinterest was not paid; and two weeks I may raise part of the money at least, the stile, was over it in a bound, and and perhaps then he will wait for the the next moment was at Lizzie's side.

mate her appearance. Lizzie was tell his story. alarmed, and would have gone to seek will give you back to us alive-I will never repine again at anything." But where was Dossy? Was she really the atternoon before, and look at Dossy, and guiltily, conscious how she had as she sat in the old-fashioned garden, misjudged him. swaying to and fro in a grapevine swing, puzzling over the troubles of the family. She was watching a bobo-link that sang in the heart of a lilac "Indeed, indeed," began Lizzic. link that sang in the heart of a lilac bush, and talking to herself the while. "What a nasty, ugly old man that landlord is," she said; "and he made nor my kittens. Ob, me! Oh, me!" money. What if she could get some? laden with produce, on their way to the puckered little brow cleared np. Why daisies by handfuls. She part of it. So I have visited every would do it; yes, indeed, she would, square mile of this and four other counand make ever so much money, and ties, and only lighted on Dossy by they wouldn't have to leave the mill, accident, to-day. I didn't even know and grandpa and sissie wouldn't cry any your grandfather's name." more. She fell to work arranging her bouquets for the morrow, her eyes fairly dancing with delight. She put them together quite tastefully, and by the time the summer moon stood over Dessy danced around, shouting in glee. the pines she had a long row set up If you ever visit England, and should would set out. Dear, innecent Dessy! She had not the least doubt that she would succeed. and she slept but little that night in her excitement. Over and over she rose from her little bed and stole on tiptoe to the window to look down on her

"Nothing is small or great of itself; it becomes so by the spirit we put into The morrow dawned cloudlessly. Breakfast over, Dossy ran down to the garden, crammed her posies into Liz-zic's market basket, and taking it on her chubby arm trudged away, fortu-is estimated at 20,000.

FOR THE LADIES.

cal writer in France is said to be a ket-place and stopped in a little correr where the shadows fell cool, and where of late. Her hands are doubled up Here, feeling a sense of safety and with rheumatism, she has a bloodless face and walks with a cane. ture, she sat down and began with deft Miss Annie Cutler, of New Haven, and a student of Smith college, was her. What a picture she made in her pausies. At the silvery call of her sweet bird-voice, piping: "Who'll buy my pausies?" one and another pedestrian looked back, a few smiled, and ment agencies, a corner in servant girls some stopped and purchased. Presin New York, the demand far exceeding the supply. Swedish, German and Scotch girls are mostly preferred. One agent said he wanted 500 or 600 girls. The perjury for which John Jackson, of Burlington, Iowa, has been sent to State prison for two years consisted in she was over eighteen.

ery purposes. or day toilets.

With black lace ruffs no white is worn ext to the neck.

n evening dresses. Very long trains require four straight his belt" and taken his offer. oreadths of material.

Plush basques with moire collars and cuffs are much admired. There is a perceptible decline fancy for feather turbans. Sagging Louis XIV. puffs are seen upon imported satin toilets. Drab, mode and tan colored in this secluded spot.

Refuge and peace, but hardly happiness. In the days of her presperity she laugh. "and I will buy them," he consists of her presperity she laugh. "and I will buy them," he consists of her presperity she laugh. "and I will buy them," he consists of the prespective of the front of dresses. bonnets of white plush or beaver are worn by little girls.

wide is doubled and gathered or box goes off quietly. Although our cavass plaited, satin is doubled or lined and grandpa's, at the old mill out of town, gathered very full, and Worth flounces some trains to the waist with doubled

Heads and Hats. gazing across the meadows, heart- the question of the circumference of crashed in one of the four legs of a to work the mill, and this had brought broken about Dossy's prolonged absence. their heads. We read a great deal stool, and grazed the man who sat on it ing from the woods beyond in the old, but such extreme stories of size are happened. It was "Kismet!"-Condirection of the town. She gave a looked upon with just suspicion. Very gressman S. S. Cox. great cry of joy, for one was certainly frequently, when the armor worn by the into arrears for nearly a twelve-month. Dossy. But who was the other? Who men-at-arms of the sixteenth and seven—
The holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall, handsome man who held teenth centuries is examined, the conThe holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall, handsome man who held teenth centuries is examined, the conThe holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall, handsome man who held to the conThe holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall, handsome man who held to the conThe holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall, handsome man who held to the conThe holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall, handsome man who held to the conThe holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall, handsome man who held to the conThe holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall, handsome man who held to the conThe holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall, handsome man who held to the conThe holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall, handsome man who held to the conThe holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall, handsome man who held to the conThe holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall, handsome man who held to the conThe holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall, handsome man who held to the conThe holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall, handsome man who held to the conThe holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall, handsome man who held to the conThe holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall, handsome man who held to the conThe holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall, handsome man who held to the conThe holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall, handsome man who held to the conThe holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall, handsome man who held to the conThe holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall the conThe holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall the conThe holder of the mortgage was a cruel, was the tall the conThe holder of the mo avaricious man. He had often threat- Dossy by the hand? Could it be-no, clusion is that the knight thus protected At this moment, while she was still But the bulk of the body may ing by the next Saturday, he would be while she felt dizzy, and about to fall, is the hat we wear to-day as big perienced in Washington, D. C. The into the fort, within the dark recesses as good as his word. Every day since and had to clutch at the railing, Dossy's as the one donned by our grandyears ago, when they ordered an sides this, the roads were muddy and that the besiegers could not reduce assortment of hats, the following almost impassable. But, this afternoon, a new and greater trouble had come. Dossy, her little pet sister, had been missing all day.

In this afternoon, a new and greater the proportions: Sizes of 21 Notwithstanding this condition a on the supplies of food. This he did, inches, none; 21 1-2, 1 hat; 22 1-2, large funeral cortege, composed of and awaited the result of a tedious pet sister, had been missing all day. Think I had deserted you?"

Notwithstanding this condition a on the supplies of food. This he did, inches, none; 21 1-2, 1 hat; 22 1-2, large funeral cortege, composed of and awaited the result of a tedious pet sister, had been missing all day. Think I had deserted you?"

To day they order and sell hats of de-type republic and city of Washington. The child often spent the mornings | What Lizzie would have replied, if playing in the woods, but invariably anything, we do not know; but he gave | 3 hats; 21 1-2, 4; 22, 3; 22 1-2, 1, and of to their burial-place in Holmends cemereturned to the moon-time meal. On her no chance; hurriedly, as if life and 23 1-2 inches none at all. It might be tery, at the intersection of Twentieth E:lend's friendship than provoke his this occasion, however, she did not death depended on it, he went on to worth while to learn what has been the street and Boundary avenue. At that counity. So, as Torfœus goes on to experience of our hatters in regard to time, and for many years afterward, say, "a conciliation took place, and then the American head-coverings, and fact, with great joy returned the parties to her; but the grandfather took it more to hand," he said. "They were inter-tories making hats by the thousand the only prominent burying ground in their several pursuits, well satisfied with coolly. "She has stopped at some of cepted, as I discovered at last. I might determine whether the American the capital city. A sandstone slab was the neighbors," he said, "she will be wouldn't mention how, under other circles and the discovered at last. I head was diminishing in bulk or not. laid on the grave, and for many years it home for supper; don't fret, dear." cumstances, but you, at least, ought to Lizzie, thinking of the coming Satur-know the whole truth. The fact is, darpose that a diminished size of the thinking of the coming Satur-know the whole truth. The fact is, darpose that a diminished size of the thinking of the coming Satur-know the whole truth. The fact is, darpose that a diminished size of the thinking of the coming Satur-know the whole truth. The fact is, darpose that a diminished size of the thinking of the coming Satur-know the whole truth. dey, had allowed herself to be persuaded that all was right, and had gone back to welcome you as a daughter, I had a intellectual power. It might be concerning the last few days her work. But, as the afternoon wore cousin, an ambitious girl, who had alsoling to know that by dint of selection, abandoned. At present it is in a conon and no Dossy came, she grew serious-ways lived with us, and who, it seems, intellectual people producing their kind, dition of neglect, dilapidation, and needle, she came out, as we have seen. said quickly, "that she loved me, but lessened, while the quality of the brain and most hideous blots that disgrace of their absence is a curious one. Under she had scratinized the landscape vaiu- Well, to make a long story short, she is not always the biggest box that conbribed the postmistress at the village tains the finest materials. Perhaps the If God will only spare you, dear-if he to give her your letters, so that I never whole explanation, as Professor Flowers to give her your letters, so that I never heard a word from you, or about you, whole explanation, as Professor Flowers time friends of the eccentric preacher dealt with accordingly. Mme. Filosopheral word from you, or about you, writes in Nature, may arise from the was Mr. Corcoran, the famous banker foff was a cultivated and generous lady, different fashion in wearing hats. In the back of the head, and it had to be bigger, while to-day we wear our hats on the top of our heads and cock them. One thing about hats which physicians declare to be true is that the hard black hat, which binds the as follows: That the circulation is hindered, and the smaller veins which supply the hair-making material and > thatch .- New York Times. Why Ireland Wears the Green. The London Truth publishes the folin the Irish quarter, the third, of the gether all classes of Irishmen.

A Congressman in Damascus.

for command, and, if naturalized, would make an excellent sergeant-at-arms.

free to cur landau, when his presence was seen as its directing force. When he organized us for our observations this morning-it was with a carriage! A carriage is as strange in these narrow streets as a white elephantine vehicle of the king of Siam would be in the Bowery. When, therefore, we went out of our hotel, under a low door, metallic, and four feet high, and mounted our open stalls where goods are displayed, and the smoking salesman sits com-tierce, dark Bedouin, with his light tur-at home we should have "rushed under

What happens in these bazaars when a string of camels strive to "lumber'

The Graves of Lorenzo Dow.

centric old preacher.

beautiful city on this continent.

The Repository

Who was born in Coventry

Connecticut, October 18th, 1777, died Feb 2

A. E. 56.
"A christian is the highest

A slave to no sect, takes aristian is the styo of man :: He is Our consulate here is under the charge of Mr. Meshaka, who provided us with a "cavass," whose appearance was both authoritative and picturesque. His name is Selim El Havet, and his golden embroidered and braided jacket, above weather.

ornament to his genius. He had genius Children gave way to him; people grown looked after him, and honored us be-cause of him; and soldiers saluted us because of his relation to our government. The bazaars, once unknown escence, or soon after. as pathways for carriages, now were

Light-colored heavy wraps are much My wife said to him, that if she were over the finger. If the particle is bestronger, and we had more time, she neath the upper lid, press the lid against would like to visit the famous city of the eyebrow and have the patient look Bagdad known so far and near. He down. Then seize the evelashes and gave a quick, honest glance, and said: edge of the lid and turn the lid quickly We will assure your safety and ease. over the thumb. Remove the speck Go with us!" These Bedouin promises | with a bandkerchief, and show it to the The richest of materials are employed are kept with fidelity, and but for trusts patient; for he will often feel for some time as if the object were still in the > two caravans of mules or donkeys, with panniers loaded ten times the size of the animal, meet each other? What if through, and what if our carriage, which can only go one way and cannot be turned around, be caught in this Eastern imbroglio? This happened to us the carriage to a silk stall; and my wife was ready for the step. Nobody here will get out of the way if they can help it. Not even a dog gets out of the way, though instant death stares him in the face. Like the people, he will gaze sleepily and half curiously at you; and picion of trouble. You pick up a stone was a Moslem, and sat above with the driver, sworded as a knight and pistoled like a Bobadil, and all recognized him as authority with the right of way to him, yet the dreamy turbaned folks about in the bazaars, crosslegged, or on low stools, with their truck to sell or Mousa. About the year 1320, by the rights of Udah succession, Harold and Erlend were joint earls of the Orkndy and Lhetlands. The widowed mother of Harold, the dame Margaretta, a woman of great beauty, after many adventures, attracted the notice Journal with what he personally knows | cause was adverse to his mother's nupconcerning the burial places of the ec- tials, so the pair fled together to Mousa. entric old preacher.

>
> Harold pursued them with all fury, and to quote the old chronicler: "Anon

Notwithstanding this condition a of the supplies of food.

A correspondent in St. Petersburg repathway southward along the fence, she was suddenly informed that she from which line many romantic views must leave Russia and reside abroad. are seen, and passing the lowly head- Her husband, the chief military prostone that marks the almost obscured curator, was in despair, but his influence and neglected grave of Salmon and office could not procure a remission monarc s to its present color to distinguish their knights from those whom the two pretenders continued to invest with the old light blue ribbon. (Bence, by the way, the expression "true blue.")

Work. A luxurious notel, supplied with two inscribed tablets which were found in some of the mounds, and which have attracted attention from American and by the way, the expression "true blue.")

Work. A luxurious notel, supplied with two inscribed tablets mound ounders had a written language. It has in its museum two inscribed tablets which were found in some of the mounds, and which have attracted attention from American and by the way, the expression "true blue.")

In this world a man is likely to get whose off to stir up the fire, and the harness was cut into pieces, the horse being allowed to stray attracted attention from American and by the way, the expression "true blue.")

In this world a man is likely to get whose off to stir up the fire, and the harness was cut into pieces, the horse being allowed to stray attracted attention from American and Enropean archmologists. We Prett the gives Men's hearts are like attracted attention from American and Enropean archmologists. We Prett the serveral and commanding officer of the several army corps, only requiring the dates to be filled in for dispatch in ten minutes. He was assured that all the horse being allowed to stray attracted attention from American and Enropean archmologists. We Prett the serveral army corps, only requiring the dates to be filled in for dispatch in ten minutes. He was assured that all the horse being allowed to stray attracted attention from American and way.

In this world a man is likely to get when the counter army corps, only requiring the dates to be filled in for dispatch in ten minutes. He was assured that all the horse being allowed to stray attracted attention from American and way. have savored too much of party, it was will be provided from which the less the inscriptions is sufficient, but the ultimately determined that it should be valorous can make it hot for the lions fact must be regarded as still very much the old color of the Garter-light blue. while remaining in safety themselves. in question.

Coin is presumed to be from the Latin cuneus, a die or stamp, and itself really is a piece of metal converted into money by a legal stamp. There is a tradition that Pheldon, king of Argos, first issued stamped silver about 746 B. C. The FOR CUTS AND BRUISES.—One of the earliest coins struck, both in Asia Minor most convenient remedies, usually to be and in Greece, were stamped upon one found in every kitchen, and which has side only. The first coin in England proved of great value in hundreds of was made by the Romans earlyin the cases of cuts, scratches, bruises and injuries inflicted by tearing the flesh on blunt instruments, rusted nails, and the dle ages, when round coin was adopted coins were first issued in France by Clovis A. D. 489. About the same time they were issued in Spain by Amalric, the Gothic king. In both countries they were called trienties. The first American coinage was by the Virginia

Coins are among the most certain

Louis d' or, or the Napoleon. Then, again, some coins have got their names from places. The florin, which has different values in Holland, Bavaria-England and Austria, is so called be, cause it was first coined in Florence.

The French franc took its name from the first syllable of the inscription francorum rex, king of the French. The sou, which circulates in France as the cent. does in the United States, is from the Latin "solidus," which was the name of a golden coin issued by some of the Romon emperors. The guinea derived its name from the coined, first in the year 1664. They were called in and succeeded by the sovereign in 1817. The English so that shielding, finally reduced to shilling, would indicate a coin on which the prince's shield is stamped. The penny is a coin of a vast antiquigenerally known, is a comparatively which it was known in ancient times. The American cent began to make its appearance from the mint in 1792, and was prepared by Robert Morris, the great financier of the Revolution. The dollar or thaler is said to been first struck in the dale or valley of Joachim, in Bohemia, in the sixteenth century. The first coinage in this country commenced in 1794. This silver coin circulates in Spain, Germany, Holland recruits drafted this year into the Ger- was treated as a foreigner—that is, he was a wild scene as the little boat vanman army has established, by a long was expelled the country by order of the ished into the darkness, perhaps never only that the height of a man varies to the frontier between two gendarmes, a lantern with them, and after they had very considerably at different times of he was given up to the Italian authori- left the pilot on board the ship, we the day, but also that this variation ties as a suspected criminal. The takes place with great regularity in the variation every individual man. The amount of French the vagabond was taken to jail down like an ignis fatuus in the misty this variation in height is, however, not and asked to give an account of himself. dark. As the night wore on the fog the same in all men, but depends on As he persisted in teiling palpable ungrew so dense that we brought up our the size and age of each individual, a truths about his birthplace he was kept six-pound brass piece from the fore tall man losing more in height than a for several months in durance then peak, and fired it at short intervals; shorter one, and a young man more than sentenced to six months for vagabond- this was done, not, as one might supsame man the amount of variation in the French did not arrest him but they form them there was a pilot-boat in the of hours he has been standing or sitting ing for work as a stone mason soon redoubled vigilance on our part, in down the height of a man increases; master a name different to that under In the middle watch we were startled, while standing or sitting it decreases; which he had been sentenced. The just after firing the cannon, by the anand therefore under normal conditions police were down upon him at once. swering whistle of a steamer hoarsely a man is taller in the morning than in Having ascertained that his new name coming down the wind, and close at the evening, while to some slight extent was not his own they got him sentenced hand. The excitement of the moment extremely fatiguing exercise or work again to a year's imprisonment, and was intense. Again we fired the cancauses additional decrease of stature. The greatest difference in height in a plainly that he could expect no peace at once the colored lights of a steamer day hitherto observed in any man until he made an avowal of his identity. loomed out of the dripping mist, and ing with her a dish containing corn, a is four centimeters, or a trifle more than one and one half inches; while Mendicite," or depot for incorrigible so near that it actually seemed to overthe contributor of a paper to the vagabonds and there committed suicide. hang our deck. Passing close along-Militar-Wochenblatt has found, as the Who he was has never been ascertained; side, she slowed up the palpitation of cords an amiable action lately performed result of a number of careful meas- but the relentless pertinacity with her mighty engine a moment to make urements of himself, that while every which he was hunted to death shows sure of our position, and then vaguely morning he measures immediately on rising exactly 172 centimeters, or five feet | police wages against criminals. If this eight inches, his height at night varies 171 to 1701-4 centimeters, or from five as an Englishman and had got himself feet seven and one-half inches to five conveyed to Dover, his troubles would cago Tribune: A hunter from Minnefeet seven and one-quarter inches. The spine of a man, in fact, consists of soil, for the British police would have twenty-four separate vertebra, between had no right to worry him or to ship every two of which there is an elastic cartilage, and these cartilaginous divisions become compressed by the weight pressing upon them when a man is standing or sitting. Test for Water. A simple test is to cork up a small of lump sugar has been put. If by thus excluding the air and letting it in their present position on the 17th of this class brought her into bad repute, stand in the light for two or three days there is not a milky cloud seen, but the water remains clear, it may be considwhich sewage water is impregnated. To ascertain if water contains iron, take a glass of water and add to it a few drops of the infusion of nutgalls, or suspend a nutgall in it by means of a thread for twenty-four hours. If iron be present, the water will become of a dark-brown or black color. Prussiate of potash is a still more delicate test for detecting iron. If a crystal, or a drop of it, when dissolved, be added to a glass of water containing iron, it will immediately become of a blue color. To ascertain if water contains magnesia, take a quantity of the water, and boil down to a twentieth part of its bulk; then drop a few grains of carbonate of ammonia into a small glass of water. No magnesia will yet be precipitated; but on adding a small quan-glass. In this experiment it is necessory that the carbonate of ammonia be in a neutral state.

All were either smoking on the floor. All were either smoking timely assistance rendered, would have and two feet in diameter, and load it been most seriously injured, if not upon his wagon. Once he stood laughcannot return to you," said the document, "you had better go to her. I grant you an extra leave of absence and 2,000 rables for traveling expenses.—Alexander." The present cars struck a line across Madam Filosofoff's name in language cards, laughing or talking. The well-tuning cards, laughing or talking. The well-tun green as their distinguishing color which is, of course, by mixing together gold and blue. At the time, therefore, of the institution of the Order of St. Patrick, in 1783, the only and undoubted.

But looks through nature with a list of "political suspects," and she up to natures God"

But looks through nature color the list of "political suspects," and she up to natures God"

But looks through nature books, etc., came in a few seconds the vehicle and her husband, the compulsory and the voluntary exile, were thus enabled or generally receives a large piece of the most finished and easily worked to return home, and, as cur police representation of the order of St. Patrick, in 1783, the only and undoubted to rear who has determined to make it ports often concluded. From the response to reindeer meat or a pair of gloves or reindeer meat or a pair of glo ports often conclude, "without a stain upon their character."

In a stain upon their character." been brought, he says, that in one night and family to coffee, and they return on cheering lustily. The appearance of The friends of the Davenport (Icwa) any army corps can be mobilized. He the compliment with the same bever- the flames brought a strong body of poappropriated by the Order of the Garter, which was originally light blue, but had been altered by the Hanoverian monares to its present color to distinguish their keyishts from those whom

Under these circumstances, it was originally proposed that the St. Patrick ribbon should be orange, but, as it would be orange, but as the particularly bold will be able to shoot bor should be orange, but, as it would be attached in war borses of the genuineness of that the evidence of the genuineness of the particularly bold will be able to shoot that the evidence of the genuineness of the particularly bold will be able to shoot the throughout the country were marked whispering gallery to you. If you of Ufa, Russia, it appears that the evidence of the genuineness of that the evidence of the genuineness of the throughout the country were marked whith he or the world is to be in throughout the country were marked what he gives. Men's hearts are like a throughout the country were marked whith he world is to be in the order. The world a man is nately to get the country were marked which the world is to be in the order. The world a man is nately to get the country were marked which the world is to be in the order. The country were marked which they would be attached in war and the province with hearts are like a throughout the country were marked which they would be in the order. The country were marked when the country were marked which they would be attached in war and the province with the country were marked when the country were mar by which each horse would be dis-patched to its destination.

To indulge a consciousness of goodness is the way to lose it. Good company and good conversaion are the very sinews of nature. If conscience restrains thee to-day it will to-morrow and all thy life long. All that a man gets by lying is, that he is not believed when he speaks the truth. There is no sadder truth to the

the past. Any one may do a casual act of good nature, but a continuation of them shows in part the temperament of the individual.

in the use of it. A brain is a very hungry thing, indeed, and he who possesses it must constantly feed it by reading or thinking, or it will shrivel up or fall asleep.

The habit of fretting is one that grows rapidly unless it be sternly re-pressed; and the best way to overbright side of things.

or a bundle of fagots?

Fame has no necessary conjunction vith praise; it may exist without the breath of a word; it is a recognition of feel it; feel it, and hate in silence.

glad of other men's good; content with my farm."

ployed in mustering and examining the year's imprisonment. On his release he and proceeded to launch the yawl. It series of careful measurements, not Perfect of Police, and being conveyed to be seen again. But her crew carried upon his discharge they told him non. The whistle drew nearer, and all

what a grim duel it is which the French | glided out of sight. - Century Magazine. unfortunate man had given himself out have ceased when he touched English sota describes a crane dance seen by Chailla, in his "Land of the Midnight line like a drum major. First the cen- gregation. Every one approached his Sun," to see the Lapp babies in their ter pair of cranes would waltz out about the region of wood, and are about two and one-half feet long by fifteen or eighteen inches wide, and are pair would come out, as did the first, He is born)!" and returned the kisses, slung round the mother's shoulders, and repeat the performance with per- and this was repeated till each had who often endures fearful storms in her haps more skill and grace. Some ap- kissed and been kissed by all present. winter wanderings. In cold weather peared very awkward, and were appeared through the peared very awkward, and were appeared through the peared very awkward, and were appeared through the peared very awkward, and were appeared to the peared very awkward to the peared very aw infants are kept in their cradles most of the time till they begin to walk. The watching them an hour or so, the four Lapp babies were kept very clean, each

The Lapps are less cleanly, however, shot, but the revelers became frightened, the service, and the consecrated morsels in their houses and surroundings. Here and flew away. The hunters say they are eaten on the way back. is a sketch of a Lapp village just be- never laughed so heartily as they did wish to transport, and to buy flour, those who had made wagers with him. an infuriated ox attempted to gore him, coffee, sugar, etc. They slept, as usual, His movements being understood, a cry he seized the animal by the horns and on the floor, on skins; the houses at that of "Welsher!" was raised, and several held him until a yoke was placed upon time, being very full, were particularly thousand persons quickly assembled. his neck. It was an ordinary thing for is only three to the square mile.

Principals are responsible for the acts of their agents. Each individual in a partnership is esponsible for the whole amount of the debts of the firm, except in cases of special partnership. Ignorance of the law excuses no one. An agreement without consideration

A note made on Sunday is void. Contracts made on Sunday cannot be oforced. A note by a minor is void. A contract made with a lunatic is void

A note obtained by fraud or from a erson in a state of intoxication cannot collected. It is a fraud to conceal a traud.

Signatures made with a lead-pencil are good in law. The acts of one partner bind the rest. "Value received" is usually written n a note, and should be, but is not ecessary. If not written it is presumed by the law or may be supplied by proof. The maker of an "accommodation' bill or note (one for which he has received no consideration), having lent is name or credit for the benefit of the older, is not bound to the person accommodated, but is bound to all other parties, precisely as if there was a good consideration. No consideration is sufficient in law: be illegal in its nature. Checks or drafts must be presented for payment without unreasonable delay An indorsee has a right of action gainst all whose names were on the oill when he received it. If the letter containing a protest of non-payment be put into the postoffice. any miscarriago does not affect the party giving notice. Notes of protest may be sent either to man in the community will, in one week the place of business or residence of the after he becomes the owner of a setter

The holder of a note may give notice of protest either to all the previous inorsers, or only to one of them; in case of the latter, he must select the last indorser, and the last must give notice to the last before him, and so on. Each indorser must send notice the same day How "Suspects" are Watched in France or the day following. Neither Sunday
If a man in France be arrested or nor legal holiday is to be counted in reckoning the time in which notice is to be given. are jointly liable on a note or bill, due notice to one of them is sufficient.

An indorser may prevent his own liability to be sued by writing "with-out recourse" or similar woods. If two or more persons as partners out recourse" or similar words. All claims which do not rest upon a seal or judgment must be sued with- up to one of the nobs, those who are the

Part payment of a debt which has | nine times out of ten he would be telling passed the time of statutory limitation the exact truth. Those who wear the revives the whole debt, and the claim finest clothes and like to swell around holds good for another period of six on the mash have seldom any more years from the date of sur'n partial pay-ont of the State, the "six years" do not begin to run until he returns. If he afterward leave the State, the time forward counts the same as if he remained in the State. - School Journal.

Night Experiences of a New York Pilot-

Crane Dance.

over this remarkable performance.

allow it to be classed with any of the Boat. We ran westward all night under ordinary nutritive matters. short sail, taking casts of the lead at in-M. Houzeau has lately published a tervals. Soon after ten, the atmosphere being thick, but not so much so as to prevent us from discerning objects at the distance of a mile, we discovered a sailing-ship ahead, evidently running covered that no person bearing his name | for New York, and probably in need of and in the center of this our solar world had been born in the commune which a pilot. Edging away toward her, we is very nearly situated. Wyoming Territory. It is a deposit of sulphuric acid in its natural state, The odor, chemical action and general an older one—assuming that in all cases age, and on the expiration of his term the men are fully grown. In the le was sent back to France. This time collision with the schooner, but to in—showly diminished. height depends mainly upon the number watched him. The unhappy man seek-vicinity. But this very fact required A Christmas Farm Scene in Montenegro since rising from his bed. While lying found employment; but gave his order that we might not be run down. Christmas in the Black mountains writes:

coming nearer, our day is growing longer, owing to the friction of the tides upon the earth's surface, by which Arthur J. Evans in his account of

'Ine ceremony in the church over the congregation wended their way to their

He was consigned to a "Depot de her huge bow emerged from the gloom, cup of wine and a pomegranate, begged The following yarn is from the Chi- to thee in wine; I give thee a pomehim recently in that State. At a mile lips, too a sip, tossed the pomegranate distant from where he and his com- over the herd, and throwing her arms pagions stood were seen, on a low, sandy around the she-goat, uttered a blessing. spot of ground, fifteen cranes in a row. At the end of the service the beauti-There was one which appeared to be the ful old Slav rite, called the "Peace of It always amused me, writes Du leader, who strutted up and down the God," was performed by the whole conparently beginners, while others were other districts, it is usual for the house graceful in their movements. After father, there generally known as staryeshina, or elder, to take a bit of cheese, storms and the damage occasioned by them in Germany, Austria and Switzerland, from 1854 to 1880, that while the increase of thunder-storms has been small, the risk from lightning has been very largely augmented. He belives of iron in house-building.

A Modern Hercules.

The shortest and surest way to live tressures.

Keep them tili to-morrow. Kindness dies if it must wait;

ently a farmer, who had just such a little one at home, bought one of her nosegays, and paid for it with half a dollar. Dossy was in raptures. Then " But for Debt and Doubt and Anger, another gentleman came along, this tall and dark, and with a bronzed face. "Won't you buy a bunch of pansies, sir, please?" said little Dossy. The stranger, who had not noticed Thus forever to put off Such a bad to-morrow." little piping voice. "Please, sir," said Dossy, holding up posy, "only twenty-five cents." The young man flashed a keen glance at Dossy, and drew near, smiling. "To be sure I will," he said, pleas-The summer afternoon waned at last; antly, "if only for the sake of your cents, scarf $2, scarf pin $30, fall overcoat the flaming sun declined toward the bright eyes. Twenty-five cents you $60, shit, $4, undershirt $2, ccat and vest horizon, and a cool, soft breeze, inex said, I think," and he drew out his $75, pantaloons, $15, accessories $4, shoes

"Yes," said Dossy, apologetically, or we shall be turned out of our pretty 'Oh, where can Dossy be?' she cried. home." As she finished she tendered "That dreadful interest which must be to her auditor the prettiest of her posies,

The stranger, all this time, had been

"Tell me," he cried, earnestly, "my He drew close to Dossy as he spoke, resident at the old mill, dependent on her needle for support. She had once and seemed to be looking in her face,

"Dessy," she answered, "" Dossy Du-His answer was to catch her in his if it had not been for her maternal arms and kiss her again and again, his grandfather. "Come to me," he had voice trembling with excitement as he have grown up to look like your dear But Dossy struggled from his emmother you will be the apple of my brace, smoothed her curls, and answered eye." So Lizzie, ignored by her haughtily: "I asked you to buy my pansies, sir, in solid colors are fashionable.

"every one of them. But don't you really know me, Dossy? 1 am Ross Devereaux. Why, you have sat on my Dossy at this stared at him curiously. tending within six months to return and Then she uttered a gleeful little shout

"Oh, I know!" she cried. "I remember you. Won't Lizzie be glad? Won't she stop crying now?" Ross Devereaux's swart cheek crim-soned. "Take me to your home," he ing of a dress. Velvet a third of a yard til you throw it or hit him, and then he

"Let us go at once then. No need to sell pansies any longer," cried Ross Devereaux, eagerly setting the child on Lizzie Dupont stood as we have said. them into debt. Already there was a Suddenly two figures appeared, emergbefore he had served a written notice, uncertain; while her heart leaped into have increased or diminished, that, if the arrears were not forthcom- her throat, and then stopped beating, Lizzie had risen by candle light and | companion, dropping the child's hand, worked till bedtime. "If I can only darted forward, for he had recognized get this embroidery done for Mrs. Wat- Lizzie, and came hurrying over the scn," she said, "by that dreadful day, meadow, waving his hat. He reached

"Thank God I have found you at her work. But, as the afternoon wore cousin, an ambitious girl, who had ally alarmed. At last, throwing down her | wished to marry me, not, of course," he "Oh, Dossy, Dossy!" she cried, when merely to secure the title and position.

> till, at last, in despair, I came over, before I intended, to solve the mystery "Came over?" said Lizzie, faintly,

> "To be sure," repeated Ross Dever-"Ah! little skeptic, eaux, frankly.

But he stopped her with a kiss. "Then it was," he went on, "that I heard for the first time of your father's poor Lizzie cry so the other day when death. But no one could give me any he was here. He says he'll drive us information of your whereabouts, I did not know your relations in New York, sudden consciousness, "we'll have no but I found out their names, though it place to live in, and I shall never hear was some time, and one was at Newyou sing, birdie; nor have my flowers, port and another at Saratoga, and a third at Virginia Springs. Before I She sobbed a little, then shook off could do anything came the news of my her April tears, and then fell to think- father's sudden death, and a summons ing in earnest. If they only had some home, for I am, you know, his heir as to both the titles and estates. When I She puckered her brow into a frown. had been at Devereaux hall for a week or so the postmistress came up, trembling and penitent, for I was now Sir neighboring little town. On the front Ross, and she had discovered by this seat of one sat an old woman, with a time that my cousin was not to be Lady basket of flower; on her knees. A sud. Devereaux. Then the vile plot was den thought flashed on Dossy, and the revealed. Darling, ever since I have been wild to discover you. I hurried couldn't she sell flowers? Her garden up my business and left England at was full of them, especially of pansies, such pansies as were not often seen.

She jumped from the swing so quickly that she landed headforemost into the gone. All they knew, and they told it to party color till 1798, when the United Irishmen adopted it, for the following reason: The ancient flag of Ireland was a golden harp on a dark blue gone. All they knew, and they told it grasses below. But, nothing daunted, with evident confusion, was that your ground, as now depicted or emblazoned off the golden hearted pausies and that he lived in this State, and in this royal standard, and the revolutionary she regained her feet and began picking mother's father had sent for you, and

There was much more to tell, details amid the evergreens, that the dew ever go in the neighborhood of Devermight keep them fresh. In the morn-eaux hall, you will hear everybody ing, as soon as breakfast was over, she talking of the beautiful Lady Devereaux whom Sir Ross brought home from America. Should you see her you will recognize, as we did, in the gracious matron the Miller's granddaughter.

> There is no peace for the man who makes his starting point from himself. The number of vertebrated animals

The best and most intelligent politiwoman. Juliette Lambert is her nom

Empress Eugenie has greatly failed awarded the $200 prize for the best enrance examination this term. Mme. Peree, a staid wife and mother. took a medical degree in Paris recently amid the applause of her masculine rivals. She was induced to study medicine by an American lady physician who brought her through a serious illness. There is, according to the employ-time a comparatively young one, but his having placed the figures eighteen in the shoes of the young lady of whom are celebrated, but they are, like those The stranger, who had not noticed he was enamored, so that in taking out her before, stopped and looked for the a marriage license he could swear that screened from sun in summer and and then, turning back, covers also the scriptions and other monuments would

The ladies can well retort upon the men for extravagance in dress, as a New York correspondent shows. Here is a bill of particulars of a swell dress: Cane $5, silk hat $7, collar twenty-five $9, seal ring $40, watch and coain $250; grand total in the neighborhood of Fashion Notes. Beaded plush is imported for milli-yorn this winter. Black remains the favorite dress o merican women. Canary-colored moire is very fashionble for brunettes.

Pale colored moire basques are worn with dark velvet skirts.

New French tea gowns show a combination of pale-colored heliotrope and sage-green satin, brocaded with silver flowers and leaves. A flounce is going to be a formidable afiair, and, if it should keep on, by the like them he will cry on the least susend of the winter it will consume as

Whether the mighty sons of Anak wore Lats at all is not of so much interest as coffee to drink, never moved. We about the size and bulk of the giants of but he smoked away as if nothing had was less in size than the man of to-day. what about the size of the head? fathers? English hatters-a conserva- clouds of sleet, and, being driven by a in a dovecote. tive set of men-declare that in their cutting, piercing northeast wind, made business the diminution of the skull is the weather terribly uncomfortable to but so impregnable was the construcquite apparent. Whereas thirty-five those who were exposed to its fary. Be- tion in those ante-gunpowder days, were the proportions: Sizes of 21 To day they order and sell hats of de- the republic and city of Washington, to contend with clsewhere, and finally might determine whether the American | the capital city. A sandstone slab was cach other." the osseous stucture may have been brows, induces baldness. They agree ashes and slab were removed and placed Madame Filosofoff's gifts to youths of April, 1874. leave the bulbs at the base of the hair turn to the right, after passing through professed revolutionists under the plea ered free from the phosphates with have their fluids sensibly diminished; the porter's lodge, and then follow the of aiding scient fic or literary aspirants, hence so many heads that are without a terday's issue of your paper, you sug- history of the reoublic. At the turn mans call a "straw widower." gest that the existing blue ribbons by the grand gate, where the road should be changed for a green one, on curves to the westward, the pathway Will you allow me to point out that this | ond terrace you go about ten feet eastsuggestion arises from a totally un- ward, where will you find the stone founded, though very common, belief slab which marks the grave. It rests that green is the national color of Ire- at an angle of forty degrees on the land? The truth, however, is that slope of the terrace fronting south, and green was never heard of as a national is in a good condition of preservation. or party color till 1798, when the Uni- The following transcript is a fac simile ted Irishmen adopted it, for the follow- of the arrangement of the inscription: being in that respect the exact converse of the present agita-tors, and to join the Orangemen to the

Patrick, in 1783, the only and undoubted man who has determined to make it national color was dark blue, and that pay, despite that it is valueless for agriwould probably have been the color of cultural purposes. His intention is to

THE HOME DOCTOR. A HINT FOR COLD WEATHER .- Dr. Foote's Health Monthly advises putting on an extra pair of stockings outside of the shoes when traveling in cold his widely flowing white pants, with his silken turban of red and gold, gave like, is made by dissolving bicarbonate by all the European nations. Gold of soda or potash in strong cider vinegar, and applying it during the effer-PARTICLES IN THE EYE. - Old and young persons are often sorely troubled by small hard particles of matter that get under the eye-lids. When children company in 1612. The firstmoney actsuffer in this way, their parents may ually coined herewas in Massachusetts, not even suspect the cause of the in 1652. Thirty-three years later Controuble. The irritation may go on in- necicut and Vermont made copper coin, creasing for years; for the inflammation and three years after them New Jersey strongly resembles catarrhal conjuncti- also made copper coin. vitis, which has quite a different cause. carriage, we had no idea of the perils | The conjunctive [as the termination itis | evidences of history. In the latter part we would undergo and overcome from in medicine always means "inflamma- of the Greek series they illustrate the loaded camels and donkeys in the nar- | tion of," conjunctivitis means inflamma- | chronology of reigns. In the Roman 10w ways. These bazaers of Damascus tion of the conjunctiva) is a mucous series they fix the datos and successi membrane which begins near the edge of events. Gibbon observes that if all snow in winter. They consist of long eyeball. It thus forms two sacs. It is be sufficient to record the travels of covered wooden sheds for each trade, exceedingly sensitive and is very liable to Hadrian. The reign of Probus might inflammations of various kinds, all pain- be written from his coins. ful and some very difficult of cure. A | Another word belonging to this class fortably on a rug in front of his little foreign body beneath the eyelid soon comes from the Roman coin issued by wareroom. There is no limitation on inflames it. Such a body beneath the Servius Tultius, and bore the image of the kind and number of Asiatics who upper lid is not as readily detected as a sheep (pecus), and was thence called throng these cool, dark thoroughfares. one beneath the lower, and it is harder pecunia, the term subsequently applied What a medley of men and miscegenation of mankind! All colors, from ebony suffered from what was supposed to be derived their names from their weight to ivory, in face and wardrobe; all shapes catarrhal inflammation, and for which -as, for instance, the British pound, of matter, men and women, and all sorts | it had been energetically treated, only | the French livre, the Italian lire; some of movements, jabber and cries! The to grow worse, was brought to Dr. from the metal itself, as the cuercus, Brooss, professor of ophthalmology in the rupes, from the Sanscrit "rupya, ban tied about his dark hair by a the New York university. On turning silver. Other coins have got their rope of black wool, and his weapons back the child's upper eyelid, the source names from the design, as the American handy in his sash, is here. He is being of the trouble was found in a small bud eagle, the angel, testoon (from testae, a White wool dresses are much worn measured for his clothes, trying his of a cherry-tree. Relief and cure followed its removal. In all such cases state, as the sovereign, the crown; and We exchanged some civilities at a tailor's the main thing to do, is to evert the others from the monarch's proper name, stall with a sheik from near Bagdad. Iid. The lower lid is easily turned as the darie (from Darius) the Phillip, eye .- Youth's Companion. A Pictish Tower. Not far from Leavenwick is the island of Mousa, celebrated for containing the most perfect known specimen of a Pictish tower. The island was formerly peopled, but is now uninhabited except by a few native sheep, taken over for grazing purposes; but in the eyes of antiquaries the little islet, only about a once or twice; and a mad camel (and when mad they are very bad and mad) dashed by us. His ropes caught our carriage and but for the quickness of our dragoman we should have been upturned or inturned into a shore. For in form, and fifty feet in diameter, and turned or inturned into a shop. For-tunately there was but one step from in the middle. Less than fifty feet in height is now standing. The stones are laid together without cement, but fitted together with a skill which has well enabled the edifice to resist the ravages of time. The tower consists or two concentric walls, each five feet thick, with about the same space between them. This space was all the barrack-room allowed the hardy warriors of old, the inner circle evidently forming the ccurtyard. Between the two walls of the tower winds a corkscrew staircase, communicating on its way up with a series of small chambers. lated from the interior courtyard by narrow slits. An interesting legend hangs around the venerable castle of disagreeable of wintry days over ex- fled the Damo Margaretta and Erlend snow, mixed with rain, fell rapidly in of which they nestled like two pigeons The "burgh" was beset with troops, the chief military procurator, Filosofoff, and his wife have returned to Rusdition of neglect, dilapidation, and decay that makes it one of the ugliest sia and reappeared at court. The story has improved on the principle that it the boasted civilization of the most the regime of Gurko it was an easy thing for any one man or woman to be Among the many admirers and old-ticketed as "politically suspected," and and philanthropist. After he and his and she employed her spare moments former days the hat was slouched on compeers had established Oak Hills in frequent gifts to poor and promising cemetery in Georgetown, D. C., as a students to aid them in their careers. A popular and wonderfully beautifully student of science or literature was city of the dead, he donated a pretty regarded ipso facto by the Gurko school and prominent site for the final deposi- of politicians as a doubtful character; tory of the famous preacher, and so if not already a Nihilist there was no bottle nearly full of it, in which a piece after a silent rest of forty years the saying how soon he might become one. and although no proof seems to have To find the location of the grave you been found that she really aided any lowing communication: In your note of Chase, the imposing monuments of the hard sentence, which reduced on the Order of Saint Patrick in yes- of Stanton and others of note in the him to the condition of what the Ger-At a court ball shortly after the exile of his wife, the late Emperor Alexander the ground that such an alteration goes on almost straight southward, and II. went up to Filosofoff and kindly would be well received by Irishmen. after passing over the steps of the sec-asked him why he looked so wretched. "Your majesty knows," he replied, "that I am a lonely man. I am no longer young. I am constantly ill, and I need hardly say that I miss the society of my wife." "I can feel for you," said the czar, "and I wish that your wife could return to you; but." your wife could return to you; out, added he, after a pause, "I find that it is quite impracticable." Early the next morning, while the procurator was at work in his study, a courier arrived work in his experiment it is necessary with a pote in the imperial handwriting. "As your wife in a neutral state.

WISE WORDS.

human mind than the irrevocableness of Pleasure and pain glide by us like shadows; life vanishes in a moment; it is nothing in itself-its value consists

Our condition never satisfies us; the present is always the worst Though Jupiter should grant his request to each, we would continue to importune him. If there are any genuine perfection ists in this country, men who haven't committed a sin of any kind for sixteen years, they can get good salaries as bank cashiers.

come it is to try to look always on the He who learns and makes no use of is learning is a beast of burden with a load of books. Comprehendeth the ass whether he carries on his back a library excellence which must be felt, but need not be spoken. Even the envious must What a world this would be if all its party notified. inhabitants could say with Shakes-pearo's shepherd: "Sir, I am a true laborer; I earn what I wear; I owe no man a hate; envy no man's happiness;

merely suspected he must say who he is. Concealment is useless, for the police will not release the man until they have exhausted all means of ascertaining the truth. He may give a false name, or say he is a forcigner, but the authorities of the place where he professes to have been born will be written coast of Guinea, in Africa, from which it was brought the gold from which it was be found incorrect he will be liable to six months' imprisonment for being a vagabond; nor will his trouble end sovereign in 1817. The English pound of silver, which was divided into 240 pennies, by the Saxons. The shilling has been assigned a great many derivations. The most plausible refers it solves to the German "schill" or shield. there, for the police will take it for truth to get a little peace. French criminals of the lower class scarcely ever try to conceal their identity. In the course of fifty years the Prefecture have had many cases of Englishmen and Its familiar shape, as may be Americans who gave false names and whose identity could not be discovered modern alteration of the silver form in because the English and American police could afford no assistance in the matter, but they can only quote one case of a Frenchman who obstinately resisted all efforts to ascertain what his name was. This wretched man had been arrested for a petty theft and stated that he was an Italian. This proved to be false; at least it was dishe described as his birthplace. He was lit our torch, and had the satisfackept in prison fifteen months and tion of seeing her send up a couple of questioned eighty times by a Judge of reckets in response. At the same time Variations in a Man's Height.

A contributor to the German MilitarWochenblatt who has been lately em and a vagabond and sentenced to a side, we also have to very near to her, him back to France. Life in Lapland. being thoroughly washed every day.

fore the spring hegira to the pasture lands: The hamlet was full of life. In summer, as we have seen, no one is at home. Every house was full of Laplanders, coming to see their friends and substitution of the Alexandra Park races in England reaches a dangerous adversary. Many stories are told of his prodigious strength that will tax the credulity of most people. landers, coming to see their friends and relatives, or to leave what they did not to leave the grounds without paying It is related that on one occasion dirty, and could not be cleaned till the crowd had left. In each room half a ner, and his clothes for the most part by a blow with his fist. These incidents core of people had quartered them-selves with the family, where they a number of policemen, who fought His feats of lifting were marvelous. It snuff takers), singing, playing cards, killed. He had conducted his betting ing at five men who were trying, in-time, and also the heur and the train back; if you seeld you get seelded.

by which each horse would be disured to you again.

Business Law in Daily Use. If a note is lost or stolen it does not elease the maker; he must pay it if the consideration for which it was given and the amount can be proven. Notes bear interest only when so

> A new significance in sun. Pain is not sweet, but pain is best; His cold hand has the magic keys Which unlocks treasures to our eyes Hidden in daily trivial things;

And common comfort, common exec, Respite from common sufferings, The morning's task, the evening's rest Are to us riches past all price. Life may be hard; but when life ends, And all the hard things are gone by, And every ache has been relieved,

And every tear is wiped away,

And softly on the ravished eye

Storm is not good; but when storms pass

And clouds are fled and airs grows mild

In tree and flower and rain-washed grace,

And waves plash softly one by one,

And weary earth, her conflict o'er,

Lies like a lovely sleeping child,

We feel a joy unknown before

Breaks the clear dawn of Heaven's day, Joy shall for grief make such amends That we shall wonder that we grieved.

Last words of the gosling: "It's all

You can't eat enough in a week to last

HUMOR OF THE DAY. The fop is only a man who thinks lown with me."-Wit and Wisdom.

you a year, and you can't advertise on that plan either.—Yonkers Gazette. "Bard out," as the poet said when he found the street door locked against him. - Marathon Independent. An Arkansas man was lynched for riding a mule on Sunday. It was another man's mule, by the way. Don't throw away your old flour bar-rels. They are useful. It has been found that an ordinary flour barrel will hold 678,900 silver dollars. The most truthful and unobtrusive dog, develop into a talented, gaudy and ostentations liar. There are three prominent phases of young woman's life all visibly connected: As a baby, she's lugged. As a young woman, she's hugged. As a wife he's humbugged.—Springfield Sunday

"You cross, cruel husband!" [she sobbed, "you have b-b-broken my h-h-heart!" "If that's the case," said the c. c. h , "you will not need the new

Sun. Slobson says that if you should walk in six years from the time when they arise.

dandies, and ask him to lend you fifty arise.

their heads. - Rochester Express.

SCIENTIFIC NOTES. The kernel of the date, on the suthority of M. Georges, is a very poor article of diet. He asserts that the absence of starch and the small proporion of albuminous matters do representation of the milky way on a large scale, showing the equality of luminous intensity by means of curves A great celestial circle, consisting of thirty-three bright masses, is apparent A most remarkable discovery has been made in the Sweetwater country, in appearance of the stuff demonstrates it to be a pure quality of sulphuric acid. The ground is impregnated over a large area-100 acres or more-and parties have filed claims upon it. When the rapid increase of the earth's motion was observed, the idea was advanced that the moon's orbit was growdown upon us. But more recent calculation shows that, instead of the moon respective homes, there to find the Christmas roast meat done to a turn. Before, however, sitting down to the festal meal, some further rites had to be performed. First, the Domachitza, tak-She then entered the stall set apart for the goats, and having first sprinkled them with corn, took the wine cup in her hand and said: "Good-morning, little mother! The peace of God be on born. Mayst thou be healthy. I drink granate; mayst thou meet with all good luck!" She then lifted the cup to her hunters went toward them with the in- and of the Christmas roast meat to be tention of getting near enough for a consecrated by the pope at the end of that the change is partly due to the use comparison of the statistics of thunder-

3,500,000 acres, and yet the population | themselves by the practice and experience of them.